

NASDAQ OMX Prices $1 Billion Senior Notes Offering

NEW YORK, Jan 12, 2010 (GlobeNewswire via COMTEX News Network) -- The NASDAQ OMX Group, Inc. (Nasdaq:NDAQ) today announced that it priced an upsized $1 billion underwritten public offering of senior notes, including $400 million aggregate principal amount of 4.00% Senior Notes due 2015 and $600 million aggregate principal amount of 5.55% Senior Notes due 2020. The offering is expected to close on January 15, 2010, subject to customary closing conditions.

Concurrently with the increase in size of the senior notes offering from the previously announced $700 million, NASDAQ OMX intends to reduce the size of its previously announced new senior unsecured credit facilities from $1,250 million of available borrowings to $950 million, of which $700 million will be a funded term loan and $250 million will be an unfunded revolver. NASDAQ OMX intends to simultaneously use the net proceeds from the notes offering together with borrowings from the proposed new senior unsecured credit facilities and cash on hand to repay all amounts outstanding under its existing senior secured credit facilities and terminate the associated credit agreement, as well as to pay fees and expenses related to these transactions.

Banc of America Securities LLC, J.P. Morgan Securities Inc. and Wells Fargo Securities, LLC are the joint book-running managers of the notes offering.

The offering is being made pursuant to an effective shelf registration statement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. A prospectus supplement and accompanying prospectus describing the terms of this offering will be filed with the SEC.
